TRYOUTS FOR MUSICAL COMEDY

Tryouts for persons interested in acting, singing, and dancing in the Cole Porter musical comedy, "Anything Goes!", will be held Wednesday (May 31), at 7:30 p.m. in the University Theater.

Performances will be July 20-23 as part of the Masquer Summer Theater and in cooperation with the UM Opera Workshop.

According to Richard H. James, director of the summer theater, tryouts are open to any townspeople, high school and university students and faculty who may wish to participate. They need not be enrolled in the University.

Roles for comic actors, singers and dancers are available. Anyone wishing to obtain a script or score for the production should see the codirectors, John Lester in Music 106 or James in Fine Arts 204.

In addition to James and Lester, the production staff will also include designers Beverly Jane Thomas and Signe Anderson, choreographer Dana Bunnell, and conductor William Simmons.
